EYCPS I: Skills Development

Enhancing Your Communication and Presentation Skills

Open your mind to powerful communications with this intense two-day workshop! EYCPS I is perfect for individuals, professionals and teams to develop strong communication skills — a valuable component to your organization's success and profitability.

Karroll K. Alexander is masterful at helping participants gain insight into their communication style, to overcome barriers and capitalize on their strengths. Through his intense workshops, participants are positioned to become exceptional communicators who influence and inspire.

You will learn:

- Eight powerful steps to communication/presentation success.
- How to transform your fear into an important ally.
- To deliver presentations that capitalize on your strengths to inspire and influence.
- How to get to the “yes” faster, by communicating persuasively.
- How to give valuable and meaningful feedback, and much more!

Personalized focus for proven results:

- Individual assessment and goal setting prior to the session
- Maximum of seven participants per session
- 8 - 10 videotaped presentations per participant
- Expert coaching and feedback after every presentation
- One-on-one post-workshop support.
